

Adult Program Trip – Read & Go

“Direct Fire”, Fort Bragg, NC

Tuesday, October 29, 2019

Have you ever wondered about life on a military base? Did you read “Direct Fire” by A. J. Tata? Act fast as this trip has limited spots. We will be leaving from Anne Gordon Active Adult Center at Millbrook Exchange Park (1901 Spring Forest Road) at 7:00am.

Travel to Fort Bragg, NC for a guided tour. A. J. Tata, author of “Direct Fire”, is planning on joining the tour. This trip has been planned with sites from the book, including the JSOC headquarters, a base tour and museums. The tour includes a visit to the headquarters of the famous Golden Knights parachute team, with possible demonstration, the JFK Special Warfare Museum and the 82nd Airborne Division War Memorial Museum. The tour guide will provide insights and stories of our patriots in uniform. Lunch will be with our men and women in uniform at one of the base’s mess halls ($5.60 including tax, on your own, cash only).

Please note, the sites that have been scheduled for our visit are subject to change by Fort Bragg personnel. Sites may be added or dropped due to activities occurring on the base the day of the tour. Part of the tour will be outside, so please dress for the weather and wear comfortable shoes for walking. You must bring proof of U.S. Citizenship on the trip: valid drivers license, passport or state issued photo id are accepted. You will not be allowed on the base without a current and accepted ID. The group will arrive back at the Anne Gordon Center in Raleigh at approximately 6:30pm.

Due to military regulations, trip registration ends June 19th.
